Suffolk Community Council's Major Programs/Efforts

Accessible Long Island

Increasing accessibility for all Long Islanders now and for the foreseeable future through the promotion of Universal Design in all new and renovated homes and buildings.

Network of Women with Disabilities (NWD)

Increasing awareness of, and addressing issues faced by women with disabilities; improving health care access for all people is the Network's ultimate goal.

Directory of Community Services

This is the only printed directory of all human service agencies in Suffolk County. The directory has an alphabetic listing as well as sections by towns and types of services.

Clearinghouse for Community Residences

The only project of its kind, the Council maintains a database of State-licensed community-based housing in Suffolk County, to facilitate the development of more special needs housing.

Mediation Project/SPA

Providing mediation service for individuals who reside in agency-sponsored mental health housing. Single Point of Access (SPA) assists the County in the review of applications for persons with mental illness seeking to live in supervised housing in Suffolk County.

Partners in Unity

Joining with others seeking a peaceful, ethical, and humane way to address the immigration plight in Suffolk County, we recognize more than ever the need to unify our community.

Educational Seminars

Holding periodic seminars and trainings on current and pertinent issues. Check out our website for the latest seminars.
